

SPEAKER AGAIN IS OVERRULED

Progressives Join Democrats in Vote Against Him.

APPEAL MADE BY FITZGERALD

Sustained by the Combined Votes of the Democrats and the Progressive Republicans—Cannon's Opponents Thought Attempt Was Being Made to Draw the Teeth of a New Rule.

Washington, Jan. 17.—The stirring scene of the last session of congress, when the house overthrew Speaker Cannon and took the making of its rules into its own hands, was re-enacted on the floor of the house.

Threatened with what they believed to be an effort to "draw the teeth" of one of the most important of the new rules, Democrats and insurgents by a vote of 145 to 126 rallied to the support of Representative Fitzgerald (Dem., N. Y.) and sustained him in his appeal from the speaker's ruling.

The fight developed as the result of the second attempt to use the new rule which gives the house power to discharge a committee from further consideration of a bill that has been referred to it. The insurgents and the Democrats believed that this rule was from clad.

When the house convened Speaker Cannon gave recognition to Representative Hull of Iowa, chairman of the military affairs committee, who moved that the house take up the consideration of the military appropriation bill. Mr. Fitzgerald insisted upon the consideration of a motion to discharge a committee, which was upon the calendar, but Speaker Cannon ignored him.

The Democratic member declared that he was entitled to recognition and yelled "You'll overrule me if I make a point of order."

Debate Is Lively.

Insurgents, Democrats and regulars jumped into the free debate that followed. Upon the speaker's refusal to recognize Mr. Fitzgerald the latter raised a point of order against the taking up of the army appropriation bill.

The speaker read his ruling from manuscript. He held that Mr. Hull had the right of way.

"I appeal from the decision of the chair," cried Mr. Fitzgerald, but Congressman Payne of New York, Republican leader of the house, moved to lay the motion on the table.

The Payne motion was the first test of strength. It was defeated by a vote of 155 to 124. When the vote finally was taken upon the appeal from Speaker Cannon's decision, twenty-three insurgents and all but one of the Democrats present voted against the speaker. The result was the defeat of his ruling by a vote of 145 to 126.

Congressman Stearnson was the only Minnesota member to vote against the speaker's ruling. The Wisconsin members who voted against Cannon were Cary, Kopp, Kusterman, Lenroot, Morse, Nelson and Stafford.

Representative Saunders of Virginia was the only Democrat voting against Mr. Fitzgerald in the appeal from the chair's decision.

CASH DONATED TO HUMANITY

Larger Part of a Big Estate Goes to Churches, Missions and Charities.

New York, Jan. 17.—Various seats of learning and Presbyterian churches, missions and charities are beneficiaries in the will of Mrs. Emily H. Moir, probated here. It is expected that appraisals will show the estate aggregates at least $1,000,000.

Mrs. Moir's next of kin, two nieces and six grandnieces and grandnephews, are each left one-twenty-fourth of the residuary estate. To Tuskegee institute bequests are made. Harvard Princeton and Lincoln universities each will get one-twelfth of the estate.

The Presbyterian Board of Missions for Freedmen and the Presbyterian Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers will receive $5,000 each, and the Presbyterian boards of Home and Foreign Missions each one-forty-eighth of the residuary estate.

Superior Shipping Heavy.

Superior, Wis., Jan. 17.—The annual report of the port collector here, showing the valuation of the cargoes received and shipped through the port of Superior gives the total as $114,056,647.87. This does not make a new record, but is well up toward the high water mark. The total tonnage handled was 16,754,619. The biggest items were iron ore, which was almost exactly half, and coal, of which 5,912,000 tons were received.

Heavy Loss From Fires.

Chicago, Jan. 17.—Chicago suffered a heavier fire loss in 1910 than in any year since the great fire of 1871, according to H. H. Glidden, manager of the Chicago board of underwriters, who delivered an address here. The fire loss for 1910, he said, was $8,560,000.

CASE IS A COMPLICATED ONE

Judge Landis Takes Up Hearing on Demurrer in Bank Tangle.

Chicago, Jan. 17.—Judge Kenesaw M. Landis of the United States district court took up the hearing of a demurrer to a suit of C. L. Williams, receiver of the First National bank of Mineral Point, Wis., to recover $150,000 and the Kennedy Mining company's property, the latter of which he charges was exploited with the money of the bank. The case is complicated, the history being in substance as follows, as alleged in Receiver Williams' complaint:

Two days before the bank went into the hands of a receiver on Oct. 11, 1909, the mining company, of which Richard Kennedy, Calvert Spensely, Phil Allen, Jr., and C. W. McIlhenny, former officers of the bank, were organizers, deposited $150,000 with the bank in an effort to prevent its failure. When it failed they asked the return of their deposit, but the receiver claimed it was not theirs, but that they had taken the money unlawfully from the bank in the beginning to float their company and that it should remain as an asset for stockholders.

The men named sued for recovery of the sum, Williams filed a cross suit and the hearing was on a demurrer to the cross suit.

WOULD LET WOMEN
VOTE ON SUFFRAGE

South Dakota Senator Presents Unique Bill.

Pierre, S. D., Jan. 17.—Let the women settle it, is the sentiment of a bill by Senator Perley in which he wants an expression of women on the question of suffrage.

His bill provides that whenever an amendment to the constitution in regard to equal suffrage is submitted by the legislature it then becomes the duty of the county auditors at the next primary election to supply a special booth and ballot box at the regular polling places with women supervisors and the women themselves shall say by their votes what they want, such a vote being a guide to the voters at the fall election as to the desire of the women of the state on the subject. Perley thinks this will remove one of the elements of contention on that subject and leave no doubt as to how the women themselves feel on the subject.

Hursh of Lawrence, after denying any intention of a minority report on the Nebraska daylight saloon act came in with his minority report at the last moment and the proposition will be up for committee report soon. It appears that there is a wide difference of opinion on that subject in some quarters in the Black Hills, which is probably responsible for the minority report.

The different orders of railway employees are getting their representatives on the ground and while they are watching legislation generally the only thing which they have to offer at the present time is an employers' liability act which will be in conformity with the national act on that subject.

Minnesota Man Burned to Death.

Chatfield, Minn., Jan. 17.—John Lasey, for many years a resident of this place, was cremated in his home, which burned to the ground at an early hour in the morning. Mr. Lasey had lived alone for the last three months, his family having moved to Montana. He was sixty years old.

Pills Fatal to Child.

Barnesville, Minn., Jan. 17.—Mistaking a bottle of sugar-coated pills for candy, the little four-year-old son of Frank Clemens, a farmer living northeast of here, swallowed a number of the pills and died.

May Restore Printing Rule.

Blismarck, N. D., Jan. 17.—Dissatisfaction at the rule abolishing the printing of bills introduced in the house will likely result in action at a meeting of the rules committee recommending that the old custom be restored. Members have found that inconvenience resulting from nonpossession of printed copies of bills is such as to render the old rule of printing bills quite popular.

CLARK WORRIED ABOUT CANNON

Next Speaker Wishes Present
Speaker Would Take Vacation.

SEES MUCH TROUBLE AHEAD.

House Committee on Claims Is Doing Good Work by Reporting Old Bills Adversely, Thus Killing Them—Some Congressmen Are Sensitive About Their Age—Root's Silver Dollar.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Jan. 17.—[Special.]—Champ Clark once remarked that while he liked Uncle Joe Cannon immensely he would be very glad if the veteran congressman would take a vacation after March 4 extending over two years, as he had no doubt that in spite of his personal regard for each other Cannon would make a great deal of trouble for the next speaker. And beyond question Cannon, if he keeps his health, will be able to make Champ's term in the speaker's chair very interesting.

But Clark and his Democratic friends put away one very troublesome precedent not long ago when they reversed themselves and virtually admitted that they had no right under the rules to revolutionize those rules of the house by the Norris method last year. By setting themselves straight on this subject they have taken away what might have proved a very strong weapon in the hands of the Republican minority and Democratic insurgents—if there be such Democrats—in the next house.

It is quite plain that the Democrats a year ago wanted to make Cannonism a dominant issue in the campaign, and that was one reason why they joined the insurgents and put Cannon off the committee on rules and enlarged that committee.

Putting Old Claims to Death.

The house committee on claims is doing a good work in forever disposing of many spurious claim bills that have been presented in every congress for nearly half a century by reporting them adversely. The probabilities are that such bills will not again reappear to plague congressmen, for adverse reports on such old claims at this time mean that they are beyond resurrection.

Congressman Lindbergh of Minnesota is doing his share in the destruction of these bills and has more to his credit than any other member of the committee. He seems to have made a business of disposing of these "old soldiers" of legislation. It requires a hardworking congressman to do anything effective on the claims committee, as there is mighty little credit in the work, whether bills are reported favorably and passed or whether they are reported adversely and defeated.

As to a Congressman's Age.

Some men are very sensitive about their age. General John A. Logan never gave his age in his biography, nor does Senator Warner of Missouri. The other day there was a case of a claimant considered who suffered from a disease for many years, and Congressman Mann read from the report that the claimant was sixty-one years old. Ridiculing the idea that he could have been seriously injured in the government service, Mann added, "If I live until I am sixty-one I shall be very thankful."

"The general impression is," interjected Congressman Langley of Kentucky, "that the gentleman has passed that age now."

The laugh that followed nettled the member from Chicago, and he tartly rejoined: "I look much older than my friend from Kentucky because I know more. I am a long way from sixty-one."

"I have no doubt the gentleman thinks he knows more," was Langley's parting shot.

Root's Silver Dollar.

Senator Root exhibited a silver dollar at the White House on a recent visit which looked like a coin with a history. It had been dented by a rifle bullet and looked as if it might have saved a man's life or prevented a serious wound just as the old watch, pipe or match safe we have seen on exhibition has its story of being the means of a hairbread escape.

"It has a history," replied the New York senator when questioned. "At the Buffalo exposition there was a place where a man threw silver dollars into the air and a girl shot them with a rifle. This is one of the dollars. I came across it the other day. It is worth a dollar, and I am going to spend it when an opportunity offers."

No life and death story in that, and Root's eager listeners looked sold.

Five Senate Funeral Days.

Even in the short session of congress there are five days to be devoted to eulogies of senators who have died during this congress. As all of the senators were men of prominence it means that they will be given a great deal of attention.

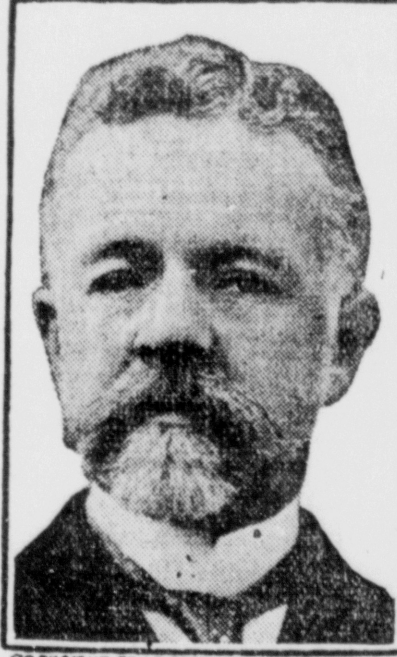

Two at least, Dooliver and Elkins, were such interesting men in public life and had such long, striking careers that they will be given extended notice. And the same is true of the others to some extent, Daniel, McEnery and Clay. The five men were all of sufficient importance to receive marked attention when the eulogies are delivered, and all will be the subject of interesting addresses.

SENATOR LODGE.

Choice of Massachusetts Republicans to Succeed Himself.

SENATOR LODGE ENDORSED

Massachusetts Republicans Would Return Him to Senate.

Boston, Jan. 17.—When the Republican legislative caucus met to nominate a candidate for United States senator there were present 123 of the 153 members of the two houses. The absentees will not be bound by the action of the caucus. On joint ballot 141 votes will be necessary to elect.

Speaker Walker presented the name of Senator H. C. Lodge for renomination.

The Democratic caucus began business with 120 members present. The total number of Democrats in both houses is 125. A secret ballot for senator was begun.

Two additional Republicans appeared, making twenty-eight absent. The caucus unanimously renominated Mr. Lodge. Seven of the absentees, it was announced, are in favor of the return of Senator Lodge.

The first four ballots at the Democratic caucus were without result, but on the fifth, Sherman I. Whipple of Boston was nominated by a vote of 64 to 34 for John R. Thayer, 11 for Joseph H. O'Connell and 2 for Eugene N. Foss. The vote was made unanimous for Whipple.

MEASURE FACES
DEFEAT IN HOUSE

Compromise Tariff Bill Likely to Be Killed.

Washington, Jan. 17.—Consideration of the pending tariff board bills will be given at a meeting of the committee on ways and means to be held Wednesday. Complying with the request of President Taft, made at the White House conference, the Republican members of the committee have decided to report a bill and to make an effort to pass it in the house.

The committee bill will represent a compromise containing provisions to be taken from both the Dalzell and Longworth bills. The committee bill, it is understood, will give the tariff board broader powers of inquiry than authorized by the Dalzell bill, but will not be as sweeping in its terms in this respect as the Longworth bill. There is one feature of the Longworth bill that will be conspicuous by its absence from the committee bill. That is the provision authorizing the board to certify to the house the names of individuals or corporations that refuse to submit data upon the request of the board.

At the last conference an attempt was made to persuade President Taft that time would not permit of the passage of a bill creating a permanent tariff board. It was pointed out that the senate Democrats had given notice they would filibuster against tariff board legislation if such action was necessary to defeat it. The president replied that promises had been made to the country and that it was the duty of the party to try and pass a bill providing for a permanent tariff board. If the legislation was defeated by the Democrats then the blame would rest on them.

The indications are the president will be lucky if he succeeds in retaining the services of the present tariff board.

Whiting May Be Judge.

Pierre, S. D., Jan. 17.—About seventy house members have signed a petition asking President Taft to appoint Judge Whiting to the federal bench. About 75 per cent of the senate favor Judge Whiting.

DEITZ COMMITTEE IS SUED

Socialist Printing Firm After Money for Job Work.

Milwaukee, Jan. 17.—The Deitz defense committee of this city has been sued for $200 covering a printing bill of the Socialist Democratic Herald Printing company for circulars and other printed matter sent out when the committee was trying to raise money to pay the Deitz lawyers.

At that time the Socialists were greatly interested in the Deitz case, using it as a political argument to aid in securing Socialist votes in Milwaukee, but after the campaign the Socialists ceased to pay as much attention to the case.

MAY HOLD AN EXTRA SESSION

SALOON MEN WILL TEST LAW

Issue of Sunday Closing at Deadwood Will Go to Supreme Court.

Deadwood, S. D., Jan. 17.—Some interesting points will be decided by the supreme court of this state in relation to the saloon law on a case from this county.

For several months Deadwood has been struggling with the question of the liquor laws and their infractions and the local authorities have demanded a strict compliance with the letter of the law which demands the closing of saloons at 11 p. m. and closing all day Sunday. Recently M. Donovan was arrested, charged with an infraction of the closing regulation. The case was tried before Judge Rice. Donovan admitted on the stand that he had been in the building, but offered the excuse that unless he pumped air into the beer, it would go stale.

Judge Rice declared that the supreme court's recent ruling on this point had precluded a saloon man or his employees from entering even his own building in closed hours, under any pretext, and that as issue of law, the jury could do nothing but find the defendant guilty if they believed his testimony, and they so found.

Citizens who are watching the case believe that the supreme court will modify its interpretation of the law.

FELL ASLEEP ON THE TRACK

Joseph Hammershake Killed by a Passenger Train Near Tracy.

Tracy, Minn., Jan. 17.—Joseph Hammershake was killed by the eastbound passenger train at a point five miles west of here. He had spent the afternoon in this city with a companion. About midnight the two started to walk on the railway track to Garvin, where they had been working during the fall. When within a few miles of there, Hammershake refused to proceed further and his companion left him and went alone the rest of the way. The man evidently fell asleep on the track and was struck soon afterwards by a train and killed. The body was found by section men.

Beer Consumption in 1910.

New York, Jan. 17.—Greater New York consumed 8,500,000 barrels of beer during 1910, according to a government report. This is an average of about two barrels a year for every man, woman and child in the city. Throughout the United States the year's consumption reached a total of nearly 60,000,000 barrels.

Congress Likely to Have to Work Overtime.

SUCH IS VIEW OF LEADERS

Row Over the House Rules Indicates the Probability of an Extra Session of Congress—Impossible to Dispose of all the Measures Presented on Scheduled Time.

Washington, Jan. 17.—The outcome of another row over the rules in the house indicates the probability of an extra session of congress. At least, this is the view given by the leaders of the body from Speaker Cannon down.

Representative Tawney of Minnesota, chairman of the appropriations committee, was more communicative on the subject than those associated with him in the leadership of the house organization. While he would not permit himself to be quoted he admitted that as a result of the action of the house there was slim chance of the regular business of that body being concluded by March 4.

The experience of many years has demonstrated that appropriation bills require a lot of time for consideration in the house. The leaders of the house at an informal conference following the adjournment of that body figured out that the house is many days short of the time required to pass its annual money matters, exclusive of the programme outlined by President Taft.

Only Eighteen Days Remain.

In the remaining six weeks there are eighteen days left for the consideration of appropriation bills. The army bill now before the house will in all probability require two more days. The diplomatic bill will require not less than two days. The agricultural bill will require six days, the naval bill about six days and the sundry civil bill, carrying nearly $150,000,000, probably twelve days. Then there remains the general deficiency bill, which will take from one to three days. Mr. Tawney figures that at least thirty legislative days will be required for the passage of appropriation measures alone.

The possibility of relieving the congestion of business by frequent night sessions was suggested at the informal conference of the house leaders following the day's adjournment. Mr. Tawney threw cold water on that proposition by declaring that he did not believe a quorum of members could be maintained in the house at night during the considering of important legislation.

APPEARS BEFORE ENGINEERS

Gopher Delegation Urges Improvement of Minnesota River.

Washington, Jan. 17.—Senator Clapp, Representatives Volstead, Stevens and Davis, Attorney C. C. Rasch and State Senator C. A. Johnson appeared before the board of engineers on river and harbor improvements at the war department and urged the improvement of the Minnesota river in conformance with the recommendation of Major Shunk, the division engineer. This contemplates the expenditure of $1,280,000 on the construction of reservoirs at the headwaters of the river and of a series of locks and dams as aids to navigation.

The delegation told of the benefits to commerce that would result from the improvement and also urged the importance of controlling the flow of water in the Minnesota in order to minimize damage from floods.

No announcement was made relative to the decision of the board, but it is believed it will approve the Shunk improvement, and that the improvement will be recommended to congress.

TWO CHILDREN CREMATED

Minnesota Man Builds Fire in Kitchen Stove With Fatal Results.

Fergus Falls, Minn., Jan. 17.—According to telephone information received by Everett Stiles of this city, the home of his brother-in-law, E. L. Botts of Frazee, was destroyed by fire which originated from the kitchen stove and two of the Botts children were cremated before their parents' eyes.

Botts went into the kitchen after arising and, building the fire, started for the barn to do the morning chores. He returned in ten minutes to find his home in flames and barely had time to save his wife from the fiery furnace. The children, Estel, a boy aged five, and Charles, a baby, were burned to death while their parents looked on in hopeless agony. A daughter escaped from the burning structure.

First Life Insurance Policy.

The first life insurance policy of which the details are on record resulted in a lawsuit. William Gibbons insured himself on June 15, 1883, for $283 against dying in twelve months. He died on May 15 of the next year, and the disgruntled underwriters (the company of those days) contested payment on the plea that he had lived twelve months of twenty-eight days each.

Wants to Know

Editor Daily Dispatch:
In reply to Mr. Zakariasen I will state that I have kept my own data of all that has been sold or delivered from the farm, but he makes the statement that horse feed, vegetables, cream, etc., has been given to certain families. Now all I ask is that Mr.
Zakariasen, will you give me a straight answer and not beat around the bush? Do you mean to say that anything like that has been going on since the seventh of October, 1908?
I am not soliciting trouble but want to be dealt with fairly and I will appreciate it if you will give me a direct answer.

WOMEN SEEK JURY DUTY.

Washington Governor Asked to Deny Petitions Absolving Fair Voters.

Prominent workers in the suffrage movement, members of exclusive clubs and scores of working women in Spokane, Wash., are writing letters to Governor Marion E. Hay urging him to deny the petitions of women electors requesting to be relieved from jury duty if called upon for service.

"When I asked for the privilege of citizenship," said Mrs. May Arkwright
Hutton, president of the Washington Equal Suffrage league, "I was ready and willing to accept all the requirements. I am willing to serve on a jury and will do so without protest if called to that or any other duty required by the state."

Mrs. Hutton is the wife of Levi W.
Hutton, a millionaire mining operator, and has extensive interests in Spokane and the Coeur d'Alene mining district in northern Idaho. She financed a state wide campaign for equal rights in 1910 and was a factor in securing the ballot for women at the last state election.

That the women of Spokane are interested in the ballot is evidenced by the large number registering for the spring election in March, when five commissioners will be chosen to replace the present city government, headed by Mayor Nelson S. Pratt.

CITY LOCK-UP IS CONDEMNED

State Board of Controll Refers in Scathing Terms to The City Bastile

STREET PETITIONS PRESENTED

Oak Street Petitioners Do Not Appear—$120 to be Sent State "Jag Farm"

The council met in regular session last night and all were present except Alderman Paine.

On motion the reading of the minutes was dispensed with.

The bill of $120, being two per cent of the liquor licenses due the state inebriate asylum, was presented to the council and on motion ordered paid.

Ritari Bros.' bill for $21.75 was scaled down by the police committee to $15.75, at which amount the council ordered it paid. G. S. Swanson, the attorney of Ritari Bros., interposed an objection, but the bill was allowed to stand at the last figures mentioned unless a satisfactory showing was made, when the council would be willing to adjust the matters.

Alderman Dieckhaus, of the finance committee, reported that they had checked up the receipts and disbursements of the city treasurer and found the same correct. The report was on motion accepted.

John Carlson asked permission to fill up a place on Third street which was granted by the council.

Alderman Henning, of the fire committee, reported on the condition of rubbish in various buildings in the city, which matter, on motion, was left to this committee and the chief of the fire department.

Alderman Drexler of the police committee reported in regard to the reduction of the police force and recommended that the matter be dropped as the saloons had reopened.

The communication of Judge G. W. Holland requesting the extension of Kindred street east of the N. P. Ry. crossing with his contribution of $100 to assist in such building was read and on motion the recommendations were concurred in.

Ordinance No. 228, the amended butcher's ordinance, received its first reading. The license fee now reads $5.

The city clerk was instructed to get $500 donation from the county to be used in the improvement of Kindred street.

A communication was read from the state board of control referring to the report of the local health officer regarding the city lock-up that it needed cleaning, whitewashing, better beds and bedding. The stoves should be protected and windows enlarged.

"In fact," says D. A. Lindsay, the deportation agent of the board, "we are somewhat discouraged in looking over this report and are under the impression that about the best thing to do with this lock-up is to condemn it for the reason that it is not fit for use, and for the further reason that we may be protected in the event of fire. We note also from the report, that you have no lock-up register as required by statute. We will be pleased to hear from you as the impression is now that the only thing to do in this case is to condemn the lock-up."

The matter, on motion, was referred to the police committee.

Harry Van Sickle made application for a pool table license which was granted.

The committee from Oak street did not put in its appearance and so the subject was not discussed.

The following three petitions were referred to the street committee:

"We the undersigned residents and tax payers of North Ninth street respectfully petition your honorable body to charge the improvements made on North Ninth street 75 per cent against the abutting property and 25 per cent from the general fund, as provided in section 88 of the city charter, the above improvements being especially beneficial to the public at large, it being the main traveled street leading to the cemetery. First estimate from engineer $41.06 for 25 foot lot, last cost charged $45.78 per 25 foot lot which we consider is unreasonable. Signed by W. J. Herremann, J. A. O'Brien, Mrs. Mary Pilon, Joseph Kiebler, W. H. Meekins, T. J. Tyler, J. H. Murphy, P. Lynch, Rev. J. J. O'Mahoney, W. I. Storm, H. A. Lyddon, Mrs. John Willis, S. R. Adair, D. K. Fullerton, John Lowey, G. S. Thomas, Harry Edwards, W. E. Lively, J. S. Vandewerger, E. M. Phelps, G. J. Kroes, D. K. Sig, Ed. Peters."

"We the undersigned resident and tax payers of Third Ave., East Brainerd, respectfully petition your honorable body to charge the improvements about to be made on Third Avenue 75 per cent against the abutting property and 25 per cent from the general fund as provided in section 88 of the city charter, the above improvement being especially beneficial to the public at large, it being the connecting link between the North and South established state roads: Henry Thon, Chas. ### SCHOOL OF COMMERCE

The Y. M. C. A. is Now Organizing a Class in Business Commerce and Finance

The progressive young men of Brainerd will now have an opportunity to acquire a special training in business such as will fit them for positions of responsibility and such as the young men of our cities have in the university business courses. A class is being formed at the Y. M. C. A. to meet one night each week and having for its object the teaching of business principles, organization and management, banking and finance, salesmanship, advertising, real estate, commercial law, transportation, etc. This course is to be given under the direct supervision of the International Law and Business Institute of Minneapolis, a well known institution of the twin cities, which has for its aim the teaching of business methods from a thorough and scientific standpoint. The Y. M. C. A. is arranging a special class room for this purpose where the class will meet and special lectures will be delivered by local business men.

The course will also embrace special lectures prepared by Andrew Carnegie, John Wannamaker, Jas. J. Hill and others of national prominence, together with specially prepared text. The leading universities of America are today teaching business, Harvard being among the first to recognize the importance of such a movement. There being a great demand for young men who have this training and we believe this course being given in connection with the Y. M. C. A. will afford an opportunity that will appeal to our progressive young men and at the same time increase materially Brainerd's educational facilities. The initial class is now being organized by Mr. W. J. Lovesy, Jr., and Mr. L. G. Gordon, who are at the Ransford for a few days.

The only member not sick is their little girl of eight years. The family resides on a homestead eight miles from Pine River and was well to do until assailed by misfortune. All persons who may wish to aid them may send remittances to their pastor, Rev. N. J. Thomasberg, of Aitkin, who has interested himself in their behalf.

FOLLOWS TREND OF PUBLIC OPINION

Legislation Is So Guided and Railway Men Propose to Have Something to Say

ABOUT RAILWAY LEGISLATION

The Cost of Living Has Increased for Railways as Well as for Their Employees

In a recent bulletin issued by the Minnesota State Railway Employees' Protective Association, an association composed of only the working men of the railroads of the state, it is said that legislation follows the trend of public opinion. The bulletin continues: "Perhaps this country is on the verge of hard times for the reason that we who have so much power and so much interest, have been apathetic, that we have allowed the few, who are selfishly controlled by the desire for increased profits by decreasing freight rates, to do all the clamoring, so that the voice of the few has been mistaken for public opinion. This time is past.

"It is the easiest thing in the world to go through this state and show railroad men, who are among the most intelligent, thrifty and law observing class in our communities, how great their responsibility is to themselves, that they should let their influence be felt and their voices raised for their betterment. Members of the legislature are like any aggregation of men, they cannot possibly know all the details of every subject upon which the may be called to pass, so that our association can, by getting data bearing upon the proposed changes in the laws, enable our lawmakers to act with better judgment and less prejudice. A large number of the members-elect of this legislature have promised us that they will seek for information from us, and they recognize that our roads and our interests have been jeopardized by too much regulation. "From month to month during the session it is the intention of this association to issue bulletins showing what is being done for and against legislation in which all branches of railroad service are interested, and as far as possible inform you what position your representatives are taking upon each question, so that you may have a personal knowledge as to how things are progressing. We assure you that we expect the fairest kind of treatment, because the members of the 1911 legislature are of a very high order.

"It is a fact that the makers of railway supplies are at their wits end how to keep their employees in work and these employees are fellow tradesmen with thousands of railroad men. All retail dealers and store keepers, along all lines of railroads, are directly affected by the depression of our payrolls, caused by reducing the force or putting the employed men on short time. We presume that railway employees on an average spend each month 95 per cent of their earnings and how much better it is for every branch of business, that all men shall have 100 per cent of their possible earnings, instead of being on reduced hours and receive only 74 per cent of the highest possible.

The cost of living to the railways has gone up by leaps and bounds, the same as it has to the individual, but with this remarkable difference, that while the individual has gotten a larger ratio of income for the work he has performed, the income of our roads has been reduced and by the provisions of the law governing rates, cannot be increased except by long, tedious and expensive litigation, which delays for months the possible increase of rates, although the increase asked may be an absolutely fair proposition. We are all familiar with how our respective wages have been increased in the past ten years, so, for the same period, we will quote the percentages of increase of only a few of the necessities of the roads and also a table based upon the rates prevailing between St. Paul to Detroit, Winona, Albert Lea and Mankato, Minn.; Fargo, Wahpeton and Grand Forks, N. D., showing how freight rates, which are the staple income of our roads, have been reduced upon the weights of the commodities, while the price of the same have, in some cases, doubled in value. "Increase in cost of material: Material for bridges... 33% Brick... 48% Cement... 15% Soft Coal... 20% Malleable Castings... 30%

A MINISTERIAL SWINDLER

Special to The Dispatch:— St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 17th, 1911— Rev. David C. Lebahn, aged fifty, travelling agent for the Gorham Hospital association, was a prisoner in the police court on a charge of grand larceny. The case involves alleged swindling operations said to involve misappropriation of approximately four thousand dollars, although the complaint against the accused minister specifies only $306.

Bar Iron	16%
Linseed Oil	91%
Paint for Freight Cars	25%
Ties	26%
Lumber	60%
Decrease in freight rates:
Grain	25%
Lumber	16%
Hard Coal	12%
Soft Coal	14%
Commodities in "car lots" and "less than car lots"	27%

"It is noticeable at once that there is no relationship between the freight rates and the cost of commodities, for while rates have come down, the price of all commodities has gone up. "The above are only a few financial reasons why the employees should and are taking such a lively interest in the roads upon which they are employed and the legislative enactments proposed to regulate them."

The officers of the Minnesota State Railway Employees' Protective Association are F. Smith, president; G. W. Dunlap, vice president; G. W. McCree, secretary, with headquarters at the Merchants hotel, St. Paul; R. W. Gingras, assistant secretary; H. E. Kemp, vice president; A. Wemyss, treasurer. Many employees of the shops in the various departments belong to the organization.

TO EXTEND EAST KINDRED TO N. P. RY.

Judge G. W. Holland Offers Council $100 to Assist in the Extension

WILL BENEFIT THE FARMERS

Kindred Street Will Thus Connect With The Oak Lawn Section Line Road

Judge G. W. Holland at last night's session of the city council submitted the following communication which will do much to benefit the farmers who drive to Brainerd by extending and improving a thoroughfare leading to this city. On motion the recommendation urged by the judge were approved by the council and his gift of $100 accepted. The improvements will be made as he has suggested. The letter reads as follows:

"Brainerd, Minn., Jan. 16, 1911. City Council of the City of Brainerd, Minn. Gentlemen:— The high board fence on the north side of the shops is on the section line between sections 19 and 30. Kindred street is next to the high board fence running east and west but wholly on section 19. Kindred street extended east and bent south thirty-three feet will exactly fit on or intersect the Oak Lawn section line road where the same crosses the N. P. railway about a half mile east of the foundry. Kindred street continued east on the section line from its east end to said crossing of the railway by the wagon road east of the meandered and dried up lake on said sections 19 and 30 may cost a little more than where it is now surveyed, but not much. To save the city financially harmless in putting the road on the section line as I have suggested, I will subscribe one hundred dollars ($100), which I think will more than pay the extra expense.

"I told Mr. Whiteley to take all the earth, brush, trees and logs from my land which is near by he desired to assist in building the road. Some years ago the wagon road which crosses the railway about a half mile east of the foundry, as above mentioned, instead of running east where it now does, ran, southeast from said crossing southeasterly through section 29-45-30. The Oak Lawn township had built a road on the section line east of Kindred street from the east part of the town: west to the southeast corner of said section 19, which is the northeast corner of said section 30. In consideration of the city vacating the road where it then ran, I built the present road from the said southeast corner of said section 19 west to said crossing of said wagon road and said railway. In doing this, a large amount of earth had to be removed from said crossing of said roads. Much of the earth I removed I had scraped on to the east end of the section line road herein proposed, which makes it in good condition about twenty-five rods west of said crossing. This would save that much on the now proposed road.

"I think if the aldermen look over the ground they would not have to take a moment to say what ought to be done. I also believe the members of the present city council will take pride in having their work referred to as having been done, not only for the present welfare of the city, but for its best interests in the distant future.

"I would like to see Kindred street extended east on section line to the point where the railroad and wagon road crosses. This is a matter which you aldermen will be proud of after the road is completed and at all future times when you examine the same.

"I have also informed Mr. Whiteley that I would give the city the right of way across all my land whichever road is adopted.

"If the city grows, as we hope it will, and there is a row of houses along the thoroughfare now under consideration, it will look much better if the street is straight.

"Believing the city council will do what it individually conscientiously believes is for the best interest for the future welfare of the city, with great respect, I remain, Very respectfully your obedient servant, G. W. HOLLAND."

MUSIC AND DRAMA

"The Lion and the Mouse"

"The Lion and the Mouse" drew a large audience last night. It was a critical one composed, in most part, of those who had read the book and they followed each line with deep interest. Never has a play appeared in Brainerd in which the actors filled their parts so admirably and blended so harmoniously. The scenery was in keeping with the high standard set by the production. Miss Bessie Lee, as Shirley Rossmore and Norris Burr as John Ryder were frequently applauded and their duel of wits with its constant thrust and parry excited the admiration of the audience. The other members of the cast also shared in the success attained by this production.

In a short interview Miss Bessie Lee said she was glad the audience liked the play. There is nothing which an actress likes better than applause for conscientious efforts. It encourages the whole cast to do their best. She considered Brainerd a pretty town and had only words of praise for the local opera house.

"But there is one thing which disturbs me," said Miss Lee, "and that is to have some boy in the gallery interrupt a climax by the audible, nerve racking chewing of peanuts. Peanuts and emotional periods have nothing in common." She expressed great interest in the socialist movement and inquired about Benidji and Brainerd, as well as Minneapolis. The company left for Fargo in the afternoon.

Death in Roaring Fire

may not result from the work of firebugs, but often severe burns are caused that make a quick need for Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the quickest, surest cure for burns, wounds, bruises, boils, sores. It subdues inflammation. It kills pain. It soothes and heals. Drives off skin eruptions, ulcers or piles. Only 25c at all druggists.

Temporary Deafness.

Temporary deafness may often be cured by a mustard poultice applied to the nape of the neck.
